

Canadian Ukrainians have right to express themselves, ambassador says

BY JENNIFER CAMPBELL, OTTAWA CITIZEN MARCH 12, 2014

f Recommend 0 Tweet 3 g+1 0 Pint Comment 0 ShareThis

STORY PHOTOS \(10 \)

To mark International Women's Day, Serbian Chargé d'Affaires Mirjana Sesum-Curcic and her husband Radojica Curcic hosted an art exhibition at the embassy by Marina Gavanski Zissis on March 5, titled Women Through Time and Nation. From left, Sesum-Curcic, Indonesian Ambassador Dienne Hardianti Moehario and Gavanski Zissis with her painting.

MORE ON THIS STORY

- New Ukraine government must tackle corruption, Canada says
- Ontario to give \$100,000 in aid for Ukraine
- Ukrainians in Canada could be game-changers in federal election

STORY TOOLS

- E-mail this Article
- Print this Article

Font: A A A A

SPOTLIGHTS